Covington Buccs Safety Town

Program Presented by the Miami County Sheriff's Office School Resource Officers with assistance from local law enforcement, EMS, and Fire Departments.

- * We will be covering a different safety lesson each day. Some of the topics are seatbelts, car seats, school bus safety, stranger danger, fire safety, gun safety, crossing the street, street signs, and traffic lights. We will have special guest speakers daily to include local fire departments, EMS services, police K-9's, the 911 Operators, and local school district bus drivers.
- * Your child will get a snack each day (cookie/juice) Please notify us of all food allergies and health concerns
- * Free car seat checks will be available during this week also. (These must be scheduled in advanced with Deputy Davidson)
- * Your child will be given a bicycle helmet, t-shirt, gun lock, color safety hand outs each day

Parents are welcomed to attend on Friday July 9nd to watch their child ride the big wheels and see what they have learned throughout the week. . A graduation will take place at the end of the session on Friday to include diplomas, pictures, cupcakes, and juice or water.
